Class Ode 1951

Ad majorem Dei gloriam
Our lives we dedicate,
For we're faced with great decisions
That may seal our fate.
When tyrant feet are trampling
Upon the common weal,
We must never cringe or writhe
'Neath the iron heel.

Oh, the weak ones must be stronger
And the strong ones must be just,
Classmates of fifty-one,
Defend our land we must,
No matter what our mission
Flying planes or tilling sod
'Twill be better if we do it
For the greater glory of God.

Here, at last, is the finished product—the 1951 edition of the Spindle. It is the finale of all school publications and a treasure chest of school souvenirs.

It has been in preparation since September and many hours of work have been put into its completion. The members of the Newswriting class, the Spindle, Miss Ryan, Miss Lowney and her staff have not labored in vain, for they have produced an erudite publication filled with scholarly and scintillating writings. On the following pages you will find a class prophecy which will afford many smiles, a class history and pictures of your teachers and friends which will freshen the memories which the years may erase.

All this could not have been accomplished without your co-operation. This Spindle is completely yours. To you, it is the finest yearbook ever published. Now, turn the pages and find out why.

ADMINISTRATION

RAYMOND A. SULLIVAN—Headmaster

Each year as we graduate a senior class, we send the young people forth with mingled emotions of regret and hope; regret that we are separating, and hope that the graduates will happily adjust to their changing environment. As we have tried to develop school spirit, academic expansion, and student morale, we have watched an encouraging expansion of fine attitudes which flow from a sum of satisfying experiences. The continued influence of these forces in the training of the class of 1951 will aid, we trust, in channeling the enthusiastic vital spirit of its members into the development of fundamental strata of useful character and accomplishment in the atomic world.

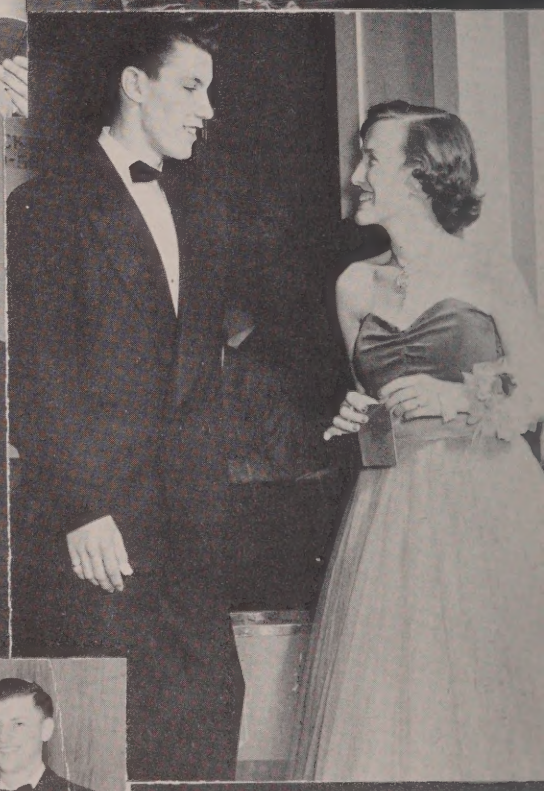
BALCO



Class Prophecy

Dear Mabel:

When I learned that you were arriving home on the Queen Elizabeth after your lengthy sojourn abroad, I said to the girls at the club, I said, "Girls, since Mabel Twinkletoes graduated with us, way back in 1951 and since she's been abroad almost ten years, I think we should enlighten her on just what has happened to our classmates during all this time." Now that's what I said. And the girls all agreed with me whole-heartedly. So, I set out to write this gossipy bit to help you catch up on these past ten years. There have been a lot of changes. Yes, a lot has happened; so sit down, grab a bite to eat, and gaze into our crystal ball:

From the grapevine we hear that Frank Andreoli has been offered a seven-year contract as stand-in for Montgomery Clift.

Geri Boyle is the howl of the skyways as new head stewardess for Pan American Airlines.

The male and female statues on the Bond Clothing Company Building in New York have come to life in the persons of Bozo Bindas and Barbara Callahan.

Latest sensation in the reporters' world—Betsy Barrett.

The weaker sex is swarming the beauty salons of Lowell to have its hair set Carolyn Boston fashion.

"A girl in every port" is the aim of Billy Clancy and John Boyle.

Gene Krupa has stepped out of the spotlight for Charlie Chiklis, the nation's leading threat in the percussion field.

Stepping into her father's shoes as one of Lowell's leading pharmacists is Mary Lou Brunelle.

Merrimack Mills is running into competition with one of the up-and-coming business firms headed by John Burgoyne.

Fred Barnes has traded in his miniature erector set for the real thing.

Paul Bourgeois is the "spark" of life in his new electrical appliance business.

Doug Mercier and Dick Gillis are proprietors of a Florida hot-dog stand which boasts foot-long dogs.

The Bears are really going places these days with Jack McCarthy and Mike Kopacz on the team.

Don't let this get around,—but two top-notch psychos, Ruth Marmer and Chuck Gilboard are going to each other for treatments.

John Janas is doing a great job in the Senate.

"Aunt Carry" is the name given to Carolyn Gordon by all the children in her day nursery.

John Maloney is being hailed as the outstanding ballad singer of the year. He might also mention that his "10 percenter", Sanford Fasth, has done everything to boost his popularity.

Jimmy McAdams and John MacNamara are business managers for a widely-read publication. Wonder if they get their ads in on time.

Jimmy Loverude is busily making Important Contributions to Human Progress.

Ronnie Scott decided to give the gals a chance. After leaving Princeton, he was awarded a contract in Hollywood, where he stars in the pic "I Wish I Were a Kid Again."

Two former presidents of Local C. I. O., Marelyn Witkos and Joanne Wisniewski meet regularly in the park and compare notes on their little genuises.

Helping to do her bit at Lake Success is Eileen Silva, Spanish linguist of prominent renown.

Leo Parent still packing them in these nights at Madison Square Garden where he is one of N. Y. U. star players.

Edie Reslow recently named "Miss Sweden" of '61.

Mary Ann Relph is now a very successful Commercial artist.

Chris and Marion Routsis—(You'll have to wait for the rest.)

Bill Quinn has taken over the old Arthur Murray spot. An able assistant of his is Ruth Reardon.

Still causing heads to turn on the Sunny Side of Merrimack Street is Barbara Sanderson, one of Lowell's leading lovelies.

Larry Walsh and Melvin Wheeler won a contest to find the most beautiful paintings of Lowell and by Lowell Artists.

The former Elaine Schaffer recently attended a Textile reunion—Class of '51.

Lillian and Barbara Thompson are the twins on T. V. to whom Arthur Godfrey sings. Which is the girl with the natural curl and which is the girl with the Toni.

Agnes Panas is the first and only lady chewing-gum salesman in Lowell.

Judy Solomon—leading a great national revival of the "Charleston."

Gerald Priori preparing now for the soon-to-be, finals in the Chess Championship of the world. Good Luck Gerr!

Harian Shapiro' latest novel, Humor, Inc. has just passed the four million mark, keeping the publishers veerry happy!

Paul Pearsall and Robert Sherburne making a neat living posing for the cartoon "Mutt & Jeff."

Janet Sanborn has just been chosen by Shorties, Inc. as—"The girl for whom we'd most like to wear elevated shoes."

Smilin' Jack Sloan smilin' through with his favorite comic strip—Yep, you guessed it.—Smilin' Jack!

John Sampas writes a dandy little Column in the Sun these days titled "The Scoop and I."

Carol Tewksbury writing her memoirs of her life on Broadway. She's calling them "The First Hundred Years."

Bob Stanley, making national news, just broke the old high jump record of six feet, set way back in 1951.

Phil Reilly is one of the youngest and most popular profs of his alma mater, The Green and White.

Joe Zaher, as the new president of the Cadet Officers' Alumni is in the process of making plans for the annual C. O. A. Ball.

Carole Sargent, our famous Congresswoman, has made such a hit, that she will be the next Lady Ambassador when her term expires.

Marcia Wojcik made the "ten-best-dressed" list.

Gordon Mulcahy is the newest Hollywood rage. They say he's got that "Boy Next Door Look."

Moe Nelson, Norma Quinn and Mary Underwood are singing the famous song on the Vaughan Monroe Show—"Let's Have a Cigarette Together."

Nancy Vallaincourt is the proudest fan of Broadway Open House since D. G. took over the proceedings—George!

Shirley Trull has decided to get away from it all; and in her spare time tends her garden. She always wanted to get back to nature!

As the years pass by, so faces change, and L. H. S. may some day see Dotty Cavoures gracing its classrooms as a popular prof.

With her experience as chief typist for L. H. S.'s Review, Dotty Brodeur has become one of the leading book publishers in the country.

News has leaked out that the corridors of Lowell General are filled with nothing but efficient and competent nurses under the watchful eye of Supervisor Olga Adams.

Already been graduated from Upsola College, Ruthie Anderson has become her own interior decorator in the little bungalow, she and you know who.

A revival of "The Dolly Sisters" is causing a lot of commotion throughout Lowell, Mass., for Lila and Sylvia Counter co-star in the Lit.

Lorraine Douglas, lab technician, draws patients by serenading each and everyone of them.

Martha Downey has taken over the position of Physical Ed instructor of L. H. S. —reviving old memories for Martha.

Mary Ruth Duffy, so the grapevine sarp, dons a black and white striped shirt with her father now and then—when her career as a nurse allows her.

Louie Demetroulakos is now splitting sides as an M. D. instead of "splitting laces" as he did in the old days on the L. H. S. basketball team.

Jerry Coughlin has taken the place of "Gorgeous George" on T. V.

Although Harry Currier is a part owner of a thriving business concern, he is haunted by talent scouts who are seeking a new "find."

Natalie Donovan has gained only eleven pounds and two ounces after working on the Strand candy counter for ten years. Not bad for Natalie!

Barbara Lou Davis' fame as one of the "G Clefs" has won her admiration among her music students.

Johnny Dalton and his private secretary Bev Dupee are using the dictaphone for their own private use.

Friends of Lee Bacon have certainly missed her! She's now living down south for an indefinite period,—married to one of the brass of our United States Army.

Although Jimmy Cusick's Naval career is one to be envied, he's admitted that he'd just as soon be cruising up the good old Merrimack.

Gerry Conlon's admirers will find her blending in with the white of a Hospital—in a uniform, of course.

The "romance language" may give a lot of students many a worry, but Kay Connelly can give any student many a pointer.

I haven't seen Bob Dostaler lately, but I ran across this ad in yesterday's paper: "Wanted: Any sick animal! Signed, Robert Dostaler, Veterinarian.

Eric Fagan is still "fiddlin' around" with the Baltimore Symphony.

Rosalind Kremer and Cynthia Neyman were recently voted among the ten best dressed women of the year.

Dr. Denis King's patients are always in "stitches."

Preparing for her next performance at Carnegie Hall keeps Beverly Kremer pretty busy.

Elaine Ganem's lovely face adorns billboards in ads for eye make-up.

T. V. audiences are being wowed by Nancy Gilinson's inimitable rendition of "There Are Fairies At the Bottom of My Garden."

David Katzman likes to sneak a day of golf now and then.

Marie McAvinnue and Joan Gallagher are both secretaries in longhand and shorthand.

Roberta Faulcon has devoted her life to missionary work.

The school children bring apples in by the bushels for such a pretty teacher as Elaine Giddis.

Fred Gallagher is still as handsome and reserved as ever.

Don Jelly now has a new yellow convertible all his own.

Besides being dramatic coach at one of the leading western colleges, "Pat" Schoen is doing weekly T. V. stints with "America's Most Handsome Man", Art McKeon Top gag-writer for the show is Clare Gomes.

Sybil Moushegian and Kay Ryan are touring the world in their '61 Oldsmobiles under the auspices of the A. A. A., lecturing on "Points for Better Driving."

Sue Moynahan has been named one of the most beautiful damsels of the decade.

Joan Mullen has become the permanent replacement on "Your Show of Shows," putting poor Imogen Coca out of a job.

Ann Murphy just finishing a long run on Broadway as Lady MacBeth and receiving the plaudits of critics and theatre-goers.

Albert O'Heir was recently named Editor-in-Chief of the perennial favorite—"Variety."

Cynthia Neyman and Roz Kremer, two of the nation's leading stylists have decided to go into the business and make it pay. Their new shop on Park Ave. is quite chic!

Jimmy O'Brien receiving his latest degree—his twenty-fifth. On the side he is preparing a text book on "Advanced Calculus."

Bev Webb, Ann Sullivan and Dorothy Taylor are doing quite well as the latest additions on the Phil Spitalni All Girl Orchestra.

Denise Dodge and Marie Ferriera have exhibited many paintings in a well-known art gallery. Miss Dodge's "Hercules" is by far her greatest masterpice.

Up-and-coming comedian. Danny Gillette, is absolutely "George."

Character, scholarship, leadership and service are the four cardinal principles of the National Honor Society which are upheld by all its members.

Membership in this Society, whose emblem is the Flaming Torch, is one of the most honored positions a student at Lowell High may hold.

Election to the Society is based on certain qualifications. Those Juniors with a grade of at least 90%, within the highest 5% of the Junior class and those Seniors with a grade of at least 85%, within 15% of the Senior class are eligible for membership.

Organized in 1927 under the sponsorship of Miss Helen Choate, the National Honor Society is maintaining its high rating under the capable direction of Mr. Charles Foley.

The Red and Gray tracksters ably led by Coach "Mike" Haggerty finished their indoor season with three victories in five dual meets including a win over the traditional rival Lawrence. Throughout the season in the State, Bowdoin and Northeastern meets, Bob Stanley, Pete Toohey, George Mullin, Pete Dziczek and Jim Casey sparked the team to creditable performances. Part of the squad was in outdoor meets with other Harriers in the spring.

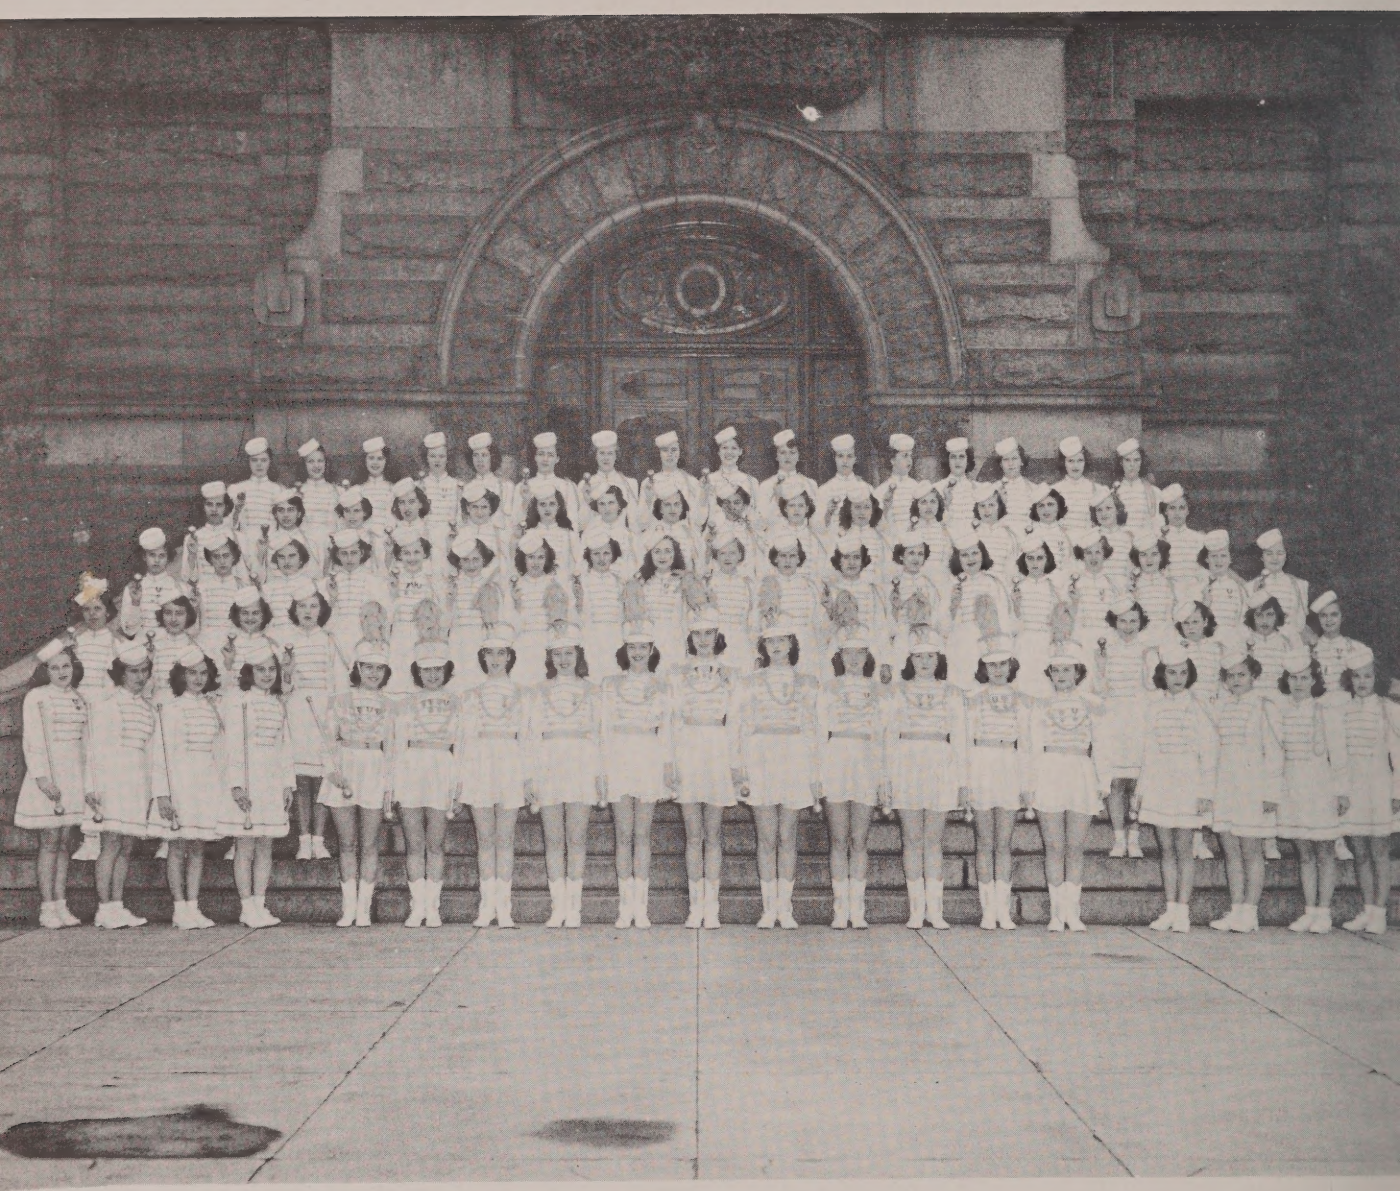
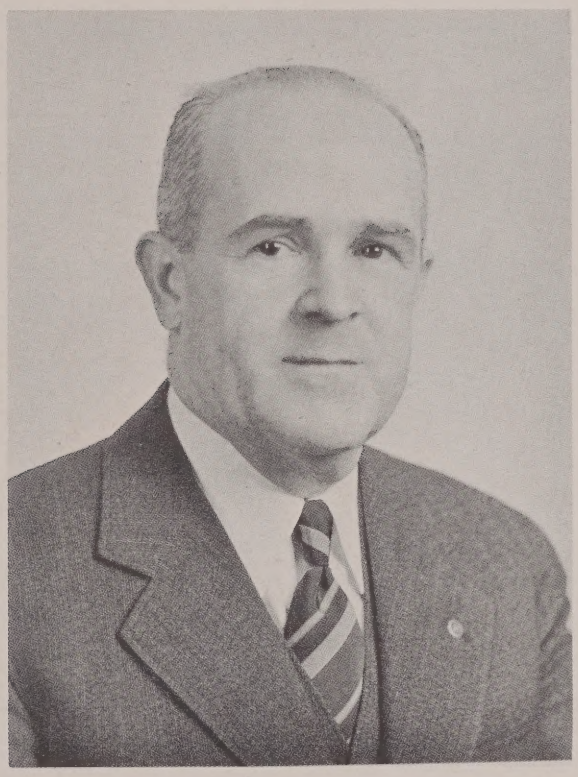
The Baton Twirlers





WILFRED T. BOULGER
Instructor

Twenty-one years ago in the fall of 1935, thirty girls and one leader were chosen and trained by Mr. Wilfrid T. Boulger to perform at the annual Thanksgiving football game. Since that time the number has increased to fifty girls and ten leaders. They have appeared at every football game and have taken part in Field Day and Memorial Day parades ever since. They have also performed for charitable groups and the school shows.

In the year 1942, in order to encourage pupils to develop their twirling abilities, there was a championship contest. Mr. Boulger awarded gold and silver medals to the winners. Every subsequent year medals have been presented to the winners of the Class A, for leaders, and Class B, for girls eligible for future leadership. In the rookie contest, girls in the first year of twirling compete. The first and second prize winners of these contests receive a gold and silver medal, respectively, and bronze medals are awarded to all the other girls participating. Twirling and drilling are year-round jobs, because as soon as the football season is over the girls begin to practice for Music Festivals, Shows, and Field Day.

Girl Officers

BAWITA LAWLER

Girl Officers

With perfect posture, eyes front, flashing sword and pointed toe, the Girl Officers have once more gained the admiration of all.

Under the supervision of Miss Bawita Lawler, the girls learn the fine points of marching, dancing, posture, voice and mass drill, and are justifiably proud to wear the navy blue uniform with brass buttons and gold chevrons.

The Girl Officers' Ball in January was the highlight of the winter months, and the Hallowe'en party in October was also a success.

The girls are also willing to aid a worthy cause. This year they helped in the Jimmy Fund, Heart Fund, T. B. Drives and served as usherettes at many affairs throughout the city.

Each year three out-of-town judges choose seventy-two junior girls to lead the freshman, sophomore, and junior girls in gym classes. Therefore each girl may be proud to be a Girl Officer in the Lowell High School Battalion.

About the year 1924, the Personnel Department was established in the Lowell High School. It includes the Personnel Staff, Switchboard Operators, and Floormasters' Secretaries.

Students taking commercial courses train during their Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years, and those showing exceptional ability are selected to serve on this Staff.

When a student has completed a year of specialized training in this department, she is ready to take a place in the business world with a sense of integrity and self-confidence.

This year nineteen Seniors, chosen for their outstanding work in the Junior year, are serving on the Staff.

Miss Annabelle C. Lowney, who is also head of the Shorthand and Typewriting Department, is the Faculty Advisor for the Staff.

WILLIAM J. NOTINI

. . . And the Band Played On

"Music hath charm", stated someone long ago, and those of us in the class of '51 can readily agree to that statement after hearing the band in its many activities during the year. At the football games the boys and girls in the bright red and grey uniforms added the color and pep through their lively marches which are an essential part of every game. Playing at assemblies, various civic affairs, and at its annual concert, the band brought enjoyment to its audiences through its wide variety of musical selections. The members of the red and grey outfit paraded at the Northeastern Massachusetts Music Festival, Field Day, and the annual Memorial Day Parade, gaining further recognition in the music field. Long remembered will be the outing at Canobie Lake completing for the Senior members their musical days at Lowell High.

Capably directing the band is Mr. William J. Notini whose patience at the Monday and Friday afternoon rehearsals and during daily classes brought praise from many sources for the fine results that he accomplished.

We salute Mr. Notini and his fifty piece band for their fine work throughout the year!

GERTRUDE F. O'BRIEN

The Special Chorus

The maroon-garbed junior and senior members of Special Chorus bring to the minds of the class of '51 musical culture at its best.

Approximately eighty voices comprise this group under the capable leadership of Miss Gertrude F. O'Brien. With Miss Evelyn Kenyon as accompanist, the chorus holds its rehearsals in the auditorium each Thursday after school.

Organized under John Maloney, President; James Loverude, Vice-President; Carol Tewksbury, Secretary; and Carole Sargent, Treasurer, the group, chosen from the entire school chorus of about three hundred students, sing throughout the year, not only to the students of Lowell High School, but to civic organizations, educational groups, and service clubs in and around Lowell.

The Orchestra

This year's orchestra, with an enrollment of approximately fifty students, rehearses each Wednesday afternoon in the auditorium under the direction of Miss Gertrude F. O'Brien.

The musical ability of this group has been proved frequently at various assemblies, the school play and graduation.

As reward for this faithful membership, the students receive praise and excellent experience as well as one credit toward graduation.

The orchestra has been an example of the patience, hard work, and excellent leadership bestowed by Miss Gertrude F. O'Brien. To her we extend our appreciation for the grand music we, the class of 51, have enjoyed.

The busy school year of 1950-1951 found the Science Club boasting a record of seventy active members.

Because of this club's ability to procure fascinating speakers and informative talks, it has progressed from a small group of science enthusiasts to the large membership of today.

The members meet every other week and talk on such subjects as chemistry, biology, and photography.

Under the capable supervision of Mr. James F. Conway, the club's advisor, the students subscribed to Science News Letter published by the Science Club of America.

This ardent group is as active socially as it is intellectually. The main event of the year was a jolly Christmas party held in room 310.

Before the school term began, new officers were elected. The officers of this year are: Suzanne Moynahan, President; Lawrence Walsh, Vice-president; Joan Russell, Program Chairman; Dorothy Cavoures, Secretary; and Cynthia Neyman, Treasurer.

Having been founded to strengthen the ability of presenting a forceful and convincing argument, the Greenhalge Debating Society has marked a successful year. Affiliated with the National Forensic League, the debaters this year discussed: Resolved that the American people should reject the welfare state.

The young aspirants proved their talent in many home and out-of-town discussions. Under the guidance of faculty advisor Francis D. Reardon, the group highlighted the year by a mock trial, extemporaneous speaking and formal debating.

Elevator Operators

Extra, extra, read all about the famous Lowell High School Review, the popular streamlined publication that rolls off the presses at the beginning of each school month; and keeps the student body informed on what's what with the Kirk Street Set.

From its humble beginnings in 1817, until just ten years ago, the Review had been printed in magazine form; but it was discovered that by preparing it in tabloid form, more news could be included at lower cost.

But the paper has come a long way since those days. Today the reader is rewarded with "scoops", the latest gossip in the "Blah" column, an up-to-the-minute sports column, "Profiles" of six of the most outstanding seniors; all this and much more in every edition of "The Review."

The reporters of the staff are selected at the close of their Junior year. Staffers are chosen for ability in English, along with recommendations of English teachers.

Probably the paper's greatest worker is its faculty advisor, Miss Anna M. Ryan, who never ceases to be amazed that the paper manages to "go to press" before the deadline and "hit the newsstands" on time.

Its greatest tribute lies in the fact that somewhere among the old and cherished souvenirs of nearly every alumnus of Lowell High School, can be found a worn and faded copy of "The Review," with "all the news that's fit to print."

And you know, that's what makes it worth while!

Hi-Y

A group of some forty high school boys met at the Pittsfield Y.M.C.A. on March 11, 1911, and organized the Pi-Hi. It has been learned from other sources that organized work with high school boys was begun as early as 1889, in Chapman, Kansas. A few years later, the Pittsfield group dropped the original name and chose Hi-Y iin its place.

The purpose of the Hi-Y Club is "To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community, high standards of christian character, through clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living."

The Lowell Club meets weekly, to dine, and listen to interesting, educational speakers. Later in the evening, a business meeting is held.

The Club also holds many social events, the most outstanding being the annual Faculty Night, when the members invite teachers to be their guests at dinner, and hear a noted after-dinner speaker. This year, Howard W. Fitzpatrick, Sheriff of Middlesex County, addressed the group.

Fifteen Lowell Hi-Y members attended the 61st annual Older Boys' Conference, in Westfield, Mass., on December 1, 2 and 3, 1950. Many new and lasting friendships were made at this conference.

A bowling league was begun this year. Trophies were awarded to the best bowlers, and the highest ranking team at the end of the season.

The Club faculty adviser is Mr. Paul V. McLaughlin; and the "Y" adviser is Mr. Wilfrid "Mike" Pearson, General Secretary of the Lowell Y.M.C.A.

The officers for 1950-51 were Bob Dostaler, President; Jim Loverude, Vice-President; Roger Ducharme, Secretary; Georgie Noval, Treasurer; Johnny Dunn, Program Chairman; Don Bacon, Publicity Chairman, and Phil Reilly, Hi-Y-Review Correspondent.

Tri-Hi

Class History

Reminiscing over the years spent at Lowell High, we remember our first year when we were "green freshmen," nervous and excited about the class social, which was held in the girls' gym. Under Mr. McHugh's supervision, the party was a success when the boys and girls finally left their respective corners to enjoy the dancing and refreshments.

Class officers Sanford Fasth, pres.; Elaine Giddis, vice-pres.; Barbara McCluskey, sec.; and John Barrett, treas; planned the activities.

It was a great year for the football fans due to the arrivel of new head coach Ray Riddick, who quickly pulled the team out of its slump. Stars of the team which won six out of ten games were Captain Walter "Tick" Kulis and "Tarsey" Kouchalakos.

Coach Haggerty's track team gained a runaway victory over Lawrence, scoring 52½ points over our down-river opponents.

The basketball team, with Gene Dziczek as captain, won thirteen of its twenty-two games, and although Tony Alchinski was well pleased with the scoring of Sam Goodsoozian, Clarence Edwards, and Captain John Ginalski, the basketball team was able to win only nine of its eighteen games.

In our sophomore year the baseball, basketball, and track teams lost many contests and had only fair seasons. However, Ray Riddick and captain Roger Sanborn led the football team through an undefeated season and a trip to Jackson, Mississippi, where they lost to Bogalusa High by a small margin.

Philip Reilly was president of the class, and the other officers were John Janas, Douglas Mercier, Ruth Anderson, and Carol Tewksbury.

At our social, Barbara Callahan, Ray McKeon, Sue Moynahan, and Jack Brennan were awarded prizes for their beautiful waltzing.

Ronnie Scott was the only sophomore who had a part in the school play, "A Woman of Sixteen."

Then we became upperclassmen, and there followed a year full of activity.

The football team emerged undefeated and beat Landon High 14-7 in a post-season game at Jacksonville, Florida, to become state co-champs with Arlington.

Everyone was sports-minded that year, and for many reasons. Who could forget such names as Mavreides, Reynolds, Ready, Armstrong, Reilly, Martino, Godreau, Lemire, Picard, Linscott, Gibson, Spaneas, and track star Art Cryan?

Phil Reilly and Doug Mercier were elected class officers for the second time, Ray True, Doris Smith, and Carole Sargent were also elected.

There were many juniors in the cast of the play, "Melody Jones," and Anne Murphy entertained everyone at the social with her hilarious monologue.

Then we were seniors, spending our last year at Lowell High, and Dan Gillette was chosen to lead us through a year of fun. Doug Mercier retained his office for a third consecutive year. John Burgoyne was first vice-president, Carole Sargent, secretary and Carol Tewksbury, treasurer.

Among our never-to-be forgotten experiences are the Lowell-Lawrence game which ended in a 13-13 tie. . . Record breaking Bob Stanley, captain of the track team . . . Leo Parent, captain of the basketball team, and member of the Massachusetts All-Star team. . . The success of "That Brewster Boy," in which many seniors, veteran actors, took part. . . Our own Charles Chiklis' orchestra at the social. . . And the antics of Dan Gillette and Nancy Gilinson, which kept us laughing all year. . . Then we graduated, and, closing the cover of the book which was our four years of high school, we faced the future as alumni.

CAROLE SARGENT
